Duckfoot Farm

Welcome to our new supplier of vegetables and herbs, Duckfoot Farm! We'll be doing our very best to support local and source all our fresh ingredients from great producers and local farmers like these fine folk!

Duckfoot Farm's mission is to demonstrate the possibilities of small-scale farming and promote mutually beneficial land share arrangements between young farmers and land owners.

It is our belief that small-scale organic farming has a big role to play in the future food system, utilising better land management practices, and improving the health of our environment and ultimately, the health of our people.

Duck Foot Farm uses No-Till Regenerative farming methods to provide the highest quality produce whilst building the health of our most vital resource... Soil!
